Resignation of Mrs. Siana Bistoquet, CEO of Seychelles Trading Company

The Ministry of Finance, National Planning and Trade is announcing the resignation of Mrs. Siana Bistoquet from her role as CEO of the Seychelles Trading Company (STC).

Mrs. Bistoquet has tendered her resignation citing health reasons, and the Minister and STC Board of Directors have respectfully accepted it.

We extend our sincere appreciation to Mrs. Bistoquet, for her dedicated service over the past three years and convey our best wishes for her future endeavours, as well as a swift and full recovery.

Further updates regarding the company's long-term leadership will be provided in due course. In the interim, Mr. David Jean-Baptiste, STC Deputy CEO, has been appointed as the Acting CEO, effective 01st January, 2024.
